Indigenous Wage Subsidy Claim for Payment and Tax Invoice

This Claim must be lodged within 28 days of the completion of the 13 or 26 week period for which you are claiming. Through submitting this form the employer declares that to the best of its knowledge, the details provided are true and accurate. The Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) may contact the employer after submission requesting that the employer provide payroll advice for the whole claim period.

All personal information collected by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) on this Claim form is protected by the Privacy Act 1988.

DEEWR is collecting the personal information on this form in order to facilitate the delivery of the Indigenous Wage Subsidy (IWS) Program. The personal information you provide will be used for:

- assessing your eligibility to be granted Indigenous Wage Subsidy for which you have applied;
- contacting your business regarding your claim;
- other purposes relating to the administration of Indigenous Wage Subsidy, for example, to evaluate, monitor and conduct research relating to Indigenous Australian employment;
- Reporting to parliamentary enquiries, Senate Estimates Committees and to meet departmental reporting requirements relating to Commonwealth Grants.

The personal information collected on this form may also be given to Job Services Australia members, Centrelink and Commonwealth Development Employment Project (CDEP) providers in the delivery of employment and related services in connection with the Indigenous Wage Subsidy Program. DEEWR may publicise and report on the awarding of any funding to you, including your name and the amounts of the funds given to you.

Please make sure that the information on this claim form is true and correct, signed by employer and employee(s), and return via either:
