

2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History APPLICATION FORM

This Application Form should be completed in accordance with the conditions of entry outlined in the Nomination Guidelines for the 2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History. Failure to comply with the Prize Guidelines will render a nomination ineligible.

This Application Form, supporting documents and seven copies of the nomination should be sent to the following address by 5.00 pm, 9 October 2009 (AEDT).

Secretariat
Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History
Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations
Location Code C16MT3
GPO Box 9880
CANBERRA ACT 2601

The Application Form and other supporting documentation can also be emailed to:

pmhistoryprize@deewr.gov.au

A separate Application Form should be completed for each nomination, unless the nominator wishes the nomination to be considered part of a 'body of work'. In this case the nomination will be considered as part of a group entry and only one Application Form should be completed. Details should be provided for all the works which form part of the nomination.

The Application Form is in five sections with two appendices. Nominators should complete all sections. Incorrectly completed entry forms will be deemed ineligible.

For further information about conditions of entry, please refer to the 2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History Nomination Guidelines. These can be found on the Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History website at:

www.deewr.gov.au/pmhistoryprize

Please print clearly when completing the Application Form.

2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History AUTHOR'S CONSENT FORM

Please note: Each author of a nominated work, including self-nominations must complete this consent form for the work to be considered eligible for the 2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History.

I, the author of this work, am aware of and consent to its nomination for the 2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History. This work has been submitted in accordance with the Nomination Guidelines for the Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History which I have read and with which I have complied. I confirm that the submitted work is my own work.

I understand that should my work be short-listed by signing this form I consent to the Australian Government Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) using and publishing my name and photographs, audiovisual material, and/or written material supplied to the Secretariat by myself or on my behalf, and containing my image or work, in any of their publications (including media releases, written and multimedia reports, guides and brochures) for distribution anywhere in the world and on the Minister's, Parliamentary Secretary's and DEEWR websites, for educational, promotional or reporting purposes, including at any presentation event. I also consent to DEEWR disclosing this information to other Commonwealth agencies which may also use and publish my name, images and written work supplied as part of my nomination for the 2009 Prime Minister's Prize for Australian History.

I also acknowledge that I am not entitled to any remuneration, royalties or any other payment from DEEWR in respect of their use of the photographs, images, or written text. I understand that copies of the nomination will not be returned.

Please note: when giving your permission you should be aware that any information published on the internet is accessible to millions of users from all over the world, that it will be indexed by search engines and that it may be copied and used by any web user. This means that once a photograph or written text is published on the internet, DEEWR has no control over its subsequent use and disclosure.
