

Compliments activity

Tape a sheet of paper on the back of each student with the sentence stem, 'Something you are good at is...'

The students then mingle writing comments on each others' sheets of paper. Once all students have at least 3 compliments, ask them to take a seat and read their compliments. Each student chooses their favourite compliment and shares it with the class.