AUSTRALIAN TRAINING AWARDS

2012 NOMINATION FORM - EMPLOYER OF THE YEAR

Employer of the Year Award will recognise a medium to large enterprise which has achieved excellence in the provision of training to its employees.

To nominate an organisation must:

- have at least 40 full time employees, and
- be the winner of an equivalent 2012 training award in their state or territory of operation, OR
- be a national company (ie: with operations and training activity in at least four states and/or territories).

Note: Organisations whose core business is the delivery of vocational education and training are not eligible to nominate for this award but may be eligible for a training provider award. In preparing and submitting your nomination, it is important that you address the Employer of the Year criteria. A copy of this document may be obtained from www.australiantrainingawards.gov.au.
